Matter Arising

Christmas craft Fayre and Christmas Fayre

There are 5 confirmed craft stalls for the evening and lots of prizes have been donated to the school from various sources. C Ashworth has a hairdressing voucher from the salon that he uses. It was clarified that the haircutting raffle money will be for the Duchennes charity.

It has been confirmed that we can use the school kitchen for the catering needs on the evening, drinks and hot dogs will be available from there. The craft stalls will be placed in the corridors to ensure maximum exposure for the craft holders. C Ashworth has measured the space and feels there will be adequate room.

Flyers have gone home to parents as have the bags for dvd's and small gifts. Flyers for bottles will be going out this week. Sarah T may be running a stall with H Jones of "Guess where the guinea pig is". Jamie Woodward is running a "Guess the tin" competition. S Roads daughter is running the tattoo stall.

C Ashworth will order a new banner as one of the old ones was stolen. One of the banners will go up by the Manor and the other will be on the fence by Uphill School.

Any other Business

The sound system is still being investigated by T Towler but is in desperate needs of replacement.

£580 was raised by the Tough Mudder event and £800 by the Fashion Show.

The idea of a "Burns Night Bingo" was discussed and decided to give it a try. It will be held on Thursday the 22nd January. C Ashworth will buy the drinks, burgers, jacket potatoes and coleslaw, etc.

Date of next meeting

The next meeting will be held on Monday January the 12th at 5pm.
